This competition offered a unique platform to pitch my startup on the main stage at the primary Founders Forum event. The visibility gained through this platform was crucial in connecting me with key individuals who subsequently played significant roles in my company's growth.

The mentorship and guidance I received from Pierre-Simon and his team were invaluable in the formative stages of my entrepreneurial endeavor. His insightful advice and robust support equipped me with the confidence and resources necessary to establish my company and navigate the complexities associated with a startup.
