Greetings,

It is my distinct pleasure to write this letter in strong support of Pierre-Simon Ntiruhungwa. As the Senior Vice President of Marketing for [REDACTED] the world's largest [REDACTED], I manage marketing for our extensive global network and various [REDACTED]. Moreover, I have served as the Director of [REDACTED] for over a decade. This esteemed event draws the crème de la crème of the next generation of CEOs and CMOs from renowned companies such as Apple, Chanel, Google, Nike, NVIDIA, TikTok, Unilever, and Verizon.

My introduction to Pierre-Simon occurred in January 2014 at an intimate dinner gathering where he was spearheading Silicon Students. The dinner featured a dozen highly influential figures, including Max Levchin, a co-founder of PayPal and Affirm which are 2 public companies worth billions of dollars and Howard Morgan, a founder of prestigious venture capital firm First Round Capital. The calibre of the attendees itself was a testament to Pierre-Simon's influential work. I was particularly struck by the Startup Dream Team programme he was leading in Silicon Valley, which showcased an innovative approach to nurturing entrepreneurial talent through collective experiences.

Our professional relationship deepened in 2016 with his role at Founders of the Future. I extended an invitation for Pierre-Simon to join [REDACTED]. Starting in 2017, he also played a pivotal role by helping us assemble a list from his network of skilled entrepreneurs, many of whom we subsequently invited. Notably, despite our typical practice of renewing 80% of our invite list annually, Pierre-Simon was invited for four consecutive years.

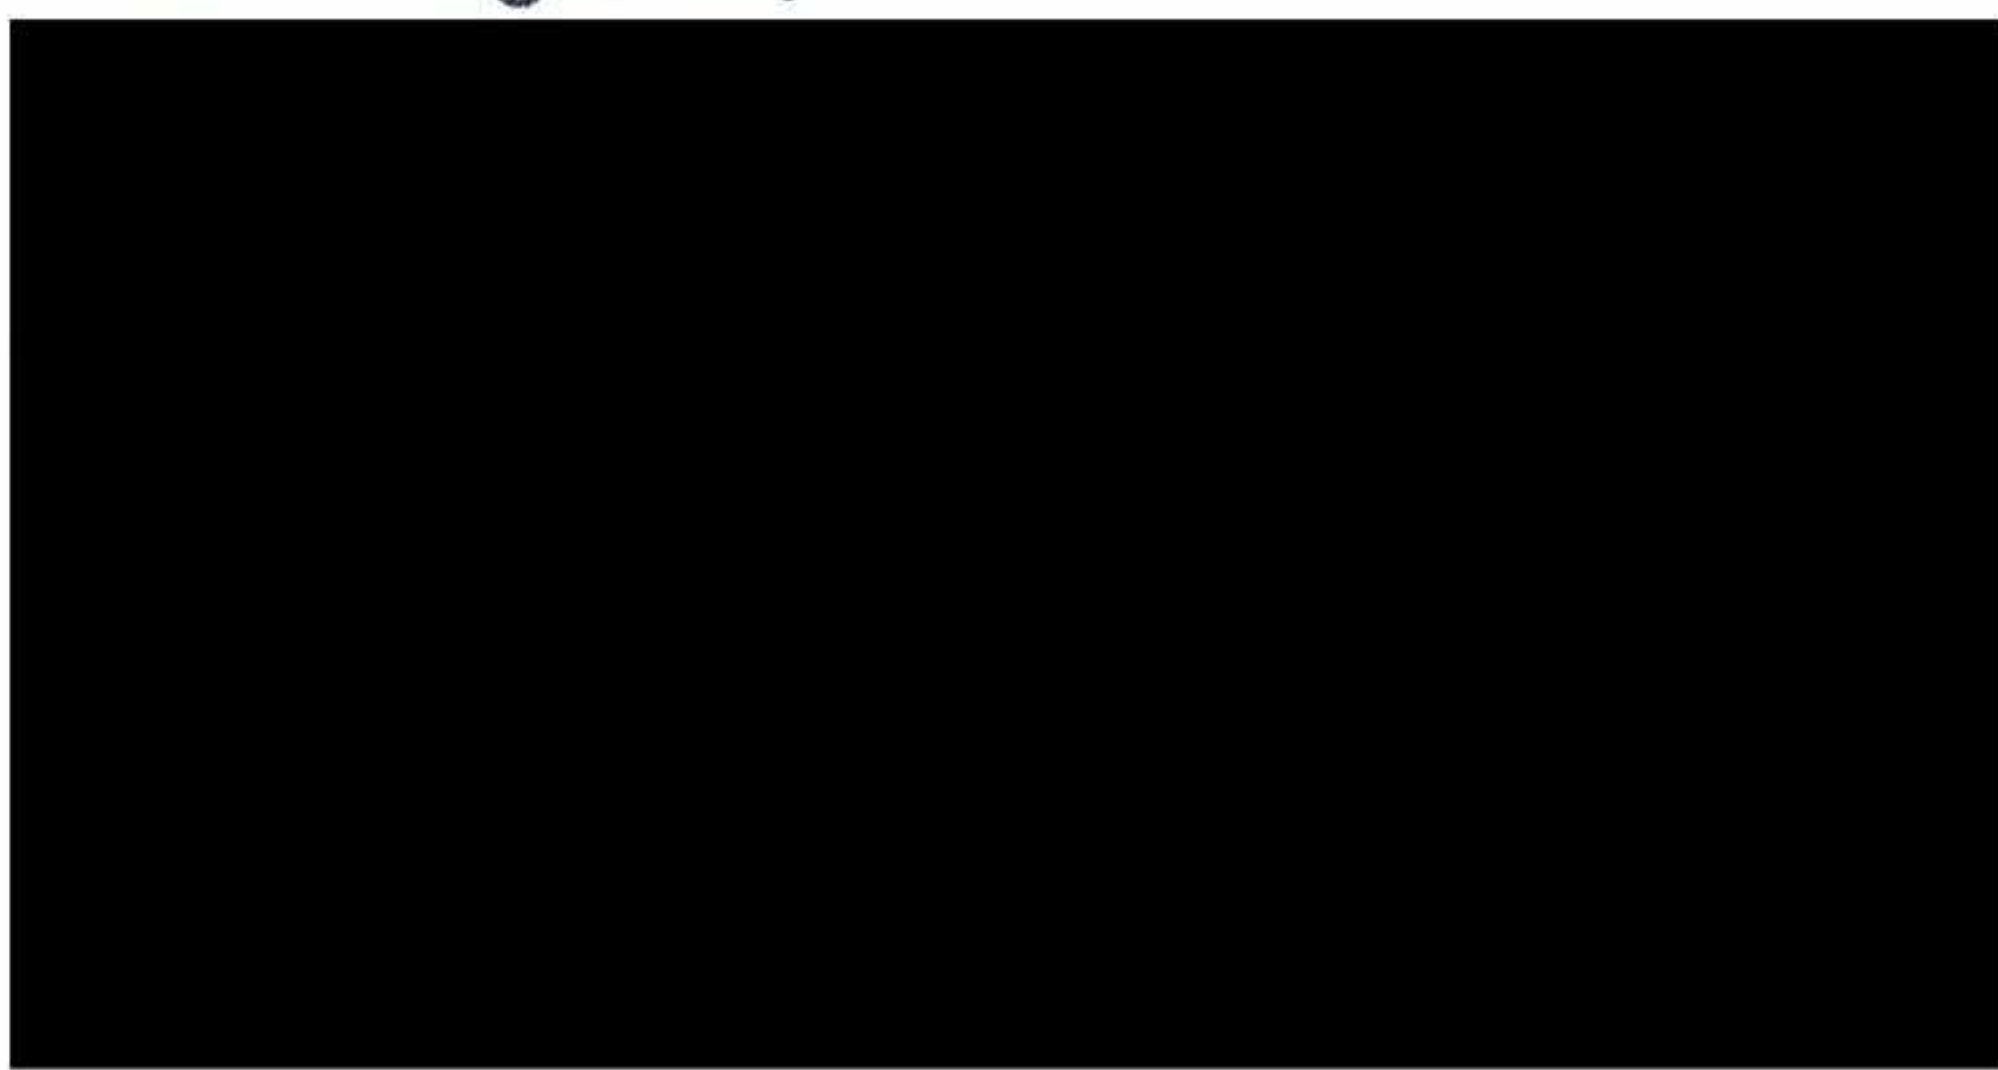

[REDACTED] maintains a reputation for attracting high-calibre attendees such as CEOs, VIPs, and billionaires, making an invitation to this event highly prestigious. During my tenure organising [REDACTED], which spans over ten years, I have had the privilege of interacting with numerous gifted entrepreneurs, and Pierre-Simon belongs to that elite category. His steadfast involvement and substantial contributions to our event highlight his ability to add tremendous value.

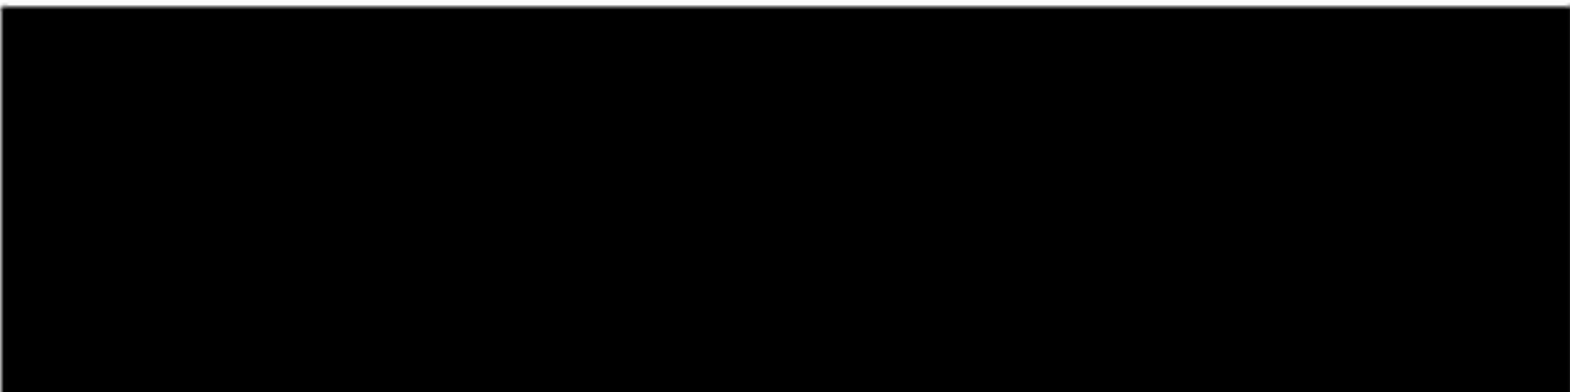

Throughout the years, I have observed Pierre-Simon's remarkable contributions to entrepreneurship via his leadership in both the Startup Dream Team and Founders of the Future. His unwavering dedication and excellence in this field, regardless of the environment, demonstrate his extraordinary capabilities. This unwavering pursuit of quality makes me confident that Pierre-Simon will continue to make significant contributions for many years to come.

Therefore, I am fully convinced that Pierre-Simon would be an asset to the United States, significantly enriching its entrepreneurial landscape.

Warm regards,
