FOUNDERS ACADEMY

Founders Academy was born out of the belief that there is an urgent need to reimagine adult education for the future of work and society.

The future is uncertain.

The future is complex.

The future is digital.

But most importantly, it is ours to define.

We believe that to shape that future, our business leaders need a new type of DNA. We call it AQ: Adaptability Quotient – the ability to thrive in a world of accelerating change. In 2020, we are launching the world's first learning experience intentionally designed to nurture AQ.

Designed from first principles and grounded in the science of learning, our intensive 9-month “alt-MBA” programme blends 3 months of ‘active learning’ in the classroom with 6 months of ‘applied learning’ in London's most ambitious scale-ups.

We are working with some of the world's leading neuroscientists, psychologists, educators, technologists, entrepreneurs and operators to develop the curriculum, working backwards from our one overarching goal: to empower individuals to thrive in a world of accelerating change and shape our future. To ensure it's a future we're proud of.
